

New From HomeTown Health University!

Healthcare Professional Training Made Accessible

The School of Long Term Care

Specialized Education for LTC Facilities and Providers

HomeTown Health University is pleased to announce a new set of courses available in our School of Long Term Care for Nursing Home, Home Health, Swing Bed, or other Long Term Care service staff. The new courses can be included in your hospital's Annual Education program as specialty education, or as separate education for your nursing home or other department. They are also available for individual purchase.

In addition, many of HTHU School of Long Term Care courses are accredited education from IACET, accepted from the Georgia Board of Nursing and the NAB for continuing education requirements.
